

TENNESSEE GENERAL ASSEMBLY
FISCAL REVIEW COMMITTEE

FISCAL NOTE

HB 1399 - SB 1527

March 1, 2023

SUMMARY OF BILL: Requires county election commissions that hold runoff elections following primary elections for municipal offices to publish the procedure for absentee voting at least five business days before the runoff election.

FISCAL IMPACT:

NOT SIGNIFICANT

Assumptions:

- Pursuant to the proposed legislation, the county election commission may publish the procedure on their website or in a newspaper of general circulation in the municipality.
- It is assumed that the county election commissions would choose to publish the information on their website for no additional cost.
- There are currently nine counties in Tennessee that have runoff elections for municipal elections: Davidson, Dickson, Gibson, Hamilton, Knox, Madison, Shelby, Tipton, and Wilson.
- All nine of the counties have a pre-existing website that they will be able to publish the required information on; therefore, there will be no significant fiscal impact to state or local government.
